

Export Control Act 1982

CERTIFICATE OF ACCREDITATION

of Property as an Accredited
Property of HGP Free Cattle

AQIS

AUSTRALIAN QUARANTINE AND INSPECTION SERVICE

ACCREDITATION NUMBER: QDLI0727

PURSUANT TO THE EXPORT CONTROL ACT 1982, A CERTIFICATE IS GRANTED TO:

Name of the Manager: Frank Titmus

Address including postal address: Fitzroyvale Station, PMB 3, CQMC Q 4702

CONDITIONS:

1. The use of Hormonal Growth Promotants (HGPs) on any cattle on the property described above is not permitted while accredited by AQIS for the production of HGP free cattle.
2. Cattle must not be brought onto the property that are HGP treated or of unknown HGP status; the only cattle introduced onto the property will be from other AQIS accredited properties and in accordance with AQIS requirements.
3. Records (endorsed declarations) must be maintained for all introduced cattle on the accredited property.
4. Records must be kept of all individual cattle brought onto and despatched from the property. These records must be kept for two (2) years after the sale or death of cattle.
5. An AQIS approved permanent individual identification device must be progressively applied to all cattle on the accredited property. Devices must be applied when animals are consigned for EU slaughter or to another accredited property, at or before weaning or at first muster. All animals must be permanently identified within one year of the issue of this certificate.
6. On consignment to an EU listed abattoir (or such other places as determined by AQIS), an AQIS approved lime green tail tag must be applied to all animals.
7. Access should be granted to persons authorised under the Export Control Act, or officers of the European Commission, onto the property to conduct audits from time to time to assess compliance with the conditions of accreditation.
8. Notice will be given to the Secretary of the Department of Agriculture, Fisheries and Forestry, in writing, of an intention to relinquish property accreditation. Additionally, the Secretary must be notified in writing of changes in ownership and/or management.
